

Do not get rid of the Indiana no-call. I feel it is an invasion of my privacy for a business to call me at home. I don't like my phone ringing every 10 minutes with that kind of nonsense. I'm sick and tired of people thinking its their right to bother other people.